

Vishwakarma University, Pune
Center for Teaching and Learning

The Center for Teaching & Learning (CTL), Vishwakarma University has been established in the year 2022, with the aim to provide necessary support to its scholars, faculty members and students for their holistic development.

Vision

To inculcate an environment of multidisciplinary education

To foster innovative teaching learning methodologies

To bridge gap between academia and industry and make education more employable

Mission

To imbibe an interdisciplinary educational culture in the University through innovative and scientifically based teaching-learning methodologies and to promote teaching and learning strategies supported by research, which will help in developing synergy between the teachers and students for a sustainable paradigm.

CTL Work Areas:

- Faculty Development Program (FDP)
- Faculty Induction Program (FIP)
- Introducing Multidisciplinary Subjects
- Introducing Innovative Teaching & Learning Methods (ICT based)
- Implementation of Innovative Teaching & Learning Methods
- Tracking efficiency of Innovative Teaching & Learning Methods
- Encouraging to research on New Age Pedagogy
- Facilitating Multidisciplinary Research
- Bridging the gap between Academia & Industry

Work Done till Date :

CTL has initiated work for developing a Faculty Induction Program for the University.

CTL has conducted workshop on OBE & Student Pathways

Facilitated an Faculty orientation program in April 2022 for newly joined faculty

CTL has signed MOU with a Company who works in the area of Lifeskills development/Personality assessment/Employabilityassessment/teacher training to bridge gap between academia and industry.

Framing of various policies for the University has been driven through CTL.

CTL has been guiding few departments for enrolling VU on different academic platforms.

CTL has facilitated different faculty orientation programs.

Dr. Vidya Bhate

Director- CTL

Vishwakarma University ,Pune